D. VOTING PROCESS

The two Special Awards in the gift of the Academy are not open to voting by members at any stage. The majority of categories are decided by Voting Members of BAFTA Cymru and then by juries.

The results of the membership vote, combined with any broadcaster entries will form the short list which will go forward for jury consideration. These specialist juries will decide which entries become the three nominations and the winners in each category.

Please note, categories receiving between 6 - 8 entries and the Short Film Category will not be subject to the Membership Voting stage and all entries will be considered by the jury.

Prior to the first round of voting, all Voting Members are informed of voting rules and must vote or register their abstention. They may vote for up to four programmes/films/individuals per category but may register their abstention from any category where they feel unqualified to vote. The top four go forward for jury consideration.

Voting is conducted online and all voting is authenticated by BAFTA's appointed scrutineers.

Broadcaster Entries

After the membership vote each broadcaster has the opportunity to enter an additional programme per category, per channel. Broadcasters are invited to enter from 3 June 2016.

A broadcaster may only choose to enter an additional programme which has already been entered into the membership vote. A new entry may not be submitted at this stage unless under exceptional circumstances. For further information on entering please contact Rebecca Hardy, Awards Manager (see Contact List).

Juries

The top four entries, as voted for by the membership, are compiled with the broadcaster entries to form the jury shortlist. The juries then decide on the three nominations and overall winner in each category.

Each jury comprises of five industry practitioners across a range of broadcasters and independent companies without conflict of interest. Members of the BAFTA Cymru Management Committee will chair each of the Juries. The jury process is authenticated by BAFTA's appointed scrutineers.

All decisions made by BAFTA Cymru and its juries are final and no correspondence will be entered into as to why particular entries were or were not nominated
